

Print the letter tiles and let young spellers use them to make words. Teach them the sound of each letter, and encourage them to use the letter sounds as they are working. For older spellers, they can use the lined paper to make their own words. To add more fun, race with them to see who can:

- write the most words in 60 seconds;
- write the most 4 letter words;
- write the longest word.

